00:31:15 Jana Lee: Bueller?

00:31:39 Erin Newton she | her: I've seen them requested on grant applications, but never used one myself

01:05:10 Erin Newton she | her: What I like about the logic model is it seems pretty scalable

01:05:50 Sarah Budd: Welcome Heidi!

01:06:58 Erin Newton she | her: The 5 phase logic model asks straightforward questions that are applicable for small, medium, and large problems

01:07:46 Jana Lee: We in L&D like to start with "what does success look like?" (Impact)

01:29:04 Stephanie Fleming: 🙏 Say hello

1. What is it that you want?
 Stated in the positive
 Client can initiate or has responsibility/control over it
 Big enough to matter; specific enough

2. What does that do for you? (MOST IMPORTANT QUESTION)
 The underlying reason; eventually reach core values

4. How will you know when you have achieved the goal? Sensory based

01:50:00 Erin Newton she | her: I might!

01:50:59 Tiffanie Clifford: Thank you to Judy and Stephanie, I have to run.

01:51:08 Erin Newton she | her: Thank you so much for the great event!

01:51:15 Bruce Hazen: Thank you for all the contribution. I must run to be late to another meeting.

01:51:21 Judy Jiang: Thank you!

01:51:25 Judy Jiang: Everyone!
